THE SENIOR CLASS

AT . . .

Woodbridge High School
Woodbridge, New Jersey

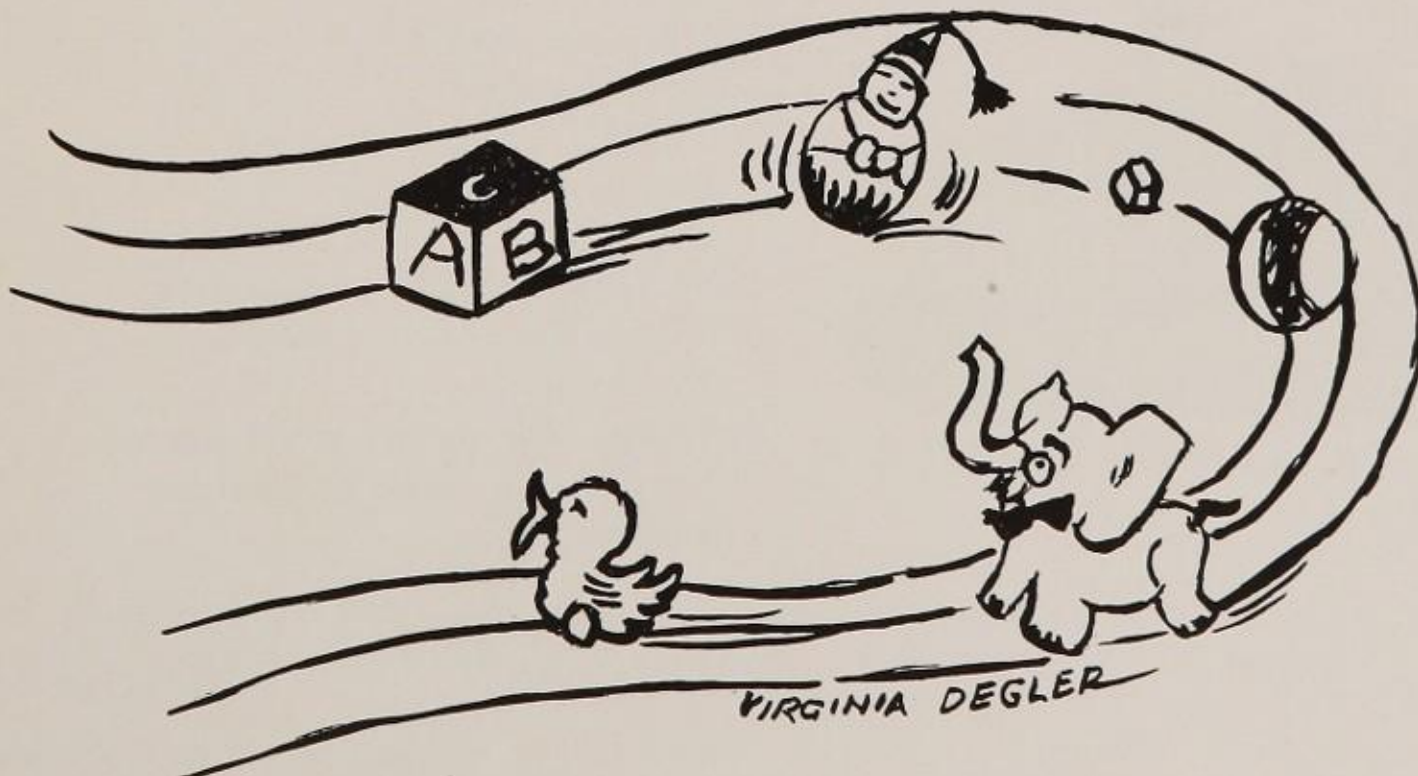

DEDICATION

WE, the Class of Nineteen hundred and forty-seven, do hereby dedicate this, our Yearbook, to Woodbridge High School. We extend all due thanks to the Faculty and Administration, our vigilant nursemaids, who have kept us in harness during our years of romping. With their able assistance, we are now leaving the Play Pen to take our first unsteady steps toward the mature responsibilities of the future. When, in the days to come, we look back on the many happy and fun-filled hours spent with our playmates, we will realize how well-guided and protected were our years of academic infancy.

FOREWORD

It's formulas, feeding directions, diapers, bottles, bassinets, and play pens for us—well, perhaps not in reality, but we truthfully could accept those implications as our own characteristics. The oldest in school in age, we did not always live up to the expectations of others—by sometimes showing ourselves the youngest in actions. Of course, in our full-blooming senior “maturity” we were a bit peeved at being relegated to that state of most juvenile characteristics, in fancy, but, we have now reached that stage where we no longer need the care of nurses since we can now walk on our own. But it's all over now—so come on into the nursery and look us over. Really—we're almost over those growing pains.

ALMA MATER

Oh, Woodbridge Alma Mater,
Thy praises let us sing;
Through the four long years of high school
May we honor to thee bring.

In football and in baseball,
In basketball and track,
May we always prove most loyal
To our dear old Red and Black.

And when our course is over,
And we leave our school for aye,
May our mem'ries often lead us
Back to Woodbridge High School days;

Where we spent such happy hours
In work and pleasure gay
May we always turn to help her,
Where'er and when we may.

CLASS SONG

Today we stand before you;
Today we graduate.
We bid good bye to Woodbridge
And go to meet our fate.
We'll reach the heights of heav'n,
But yet we know not how.
We the Class of 'forty-seven"
Take this everlasting vow.

We see the world before us
In its chaotic state.
We know the job before us
Is to wipe clean the slate.
We vow to be good citizens
Of the U. S. A.
This is our destiny
On graduation day.

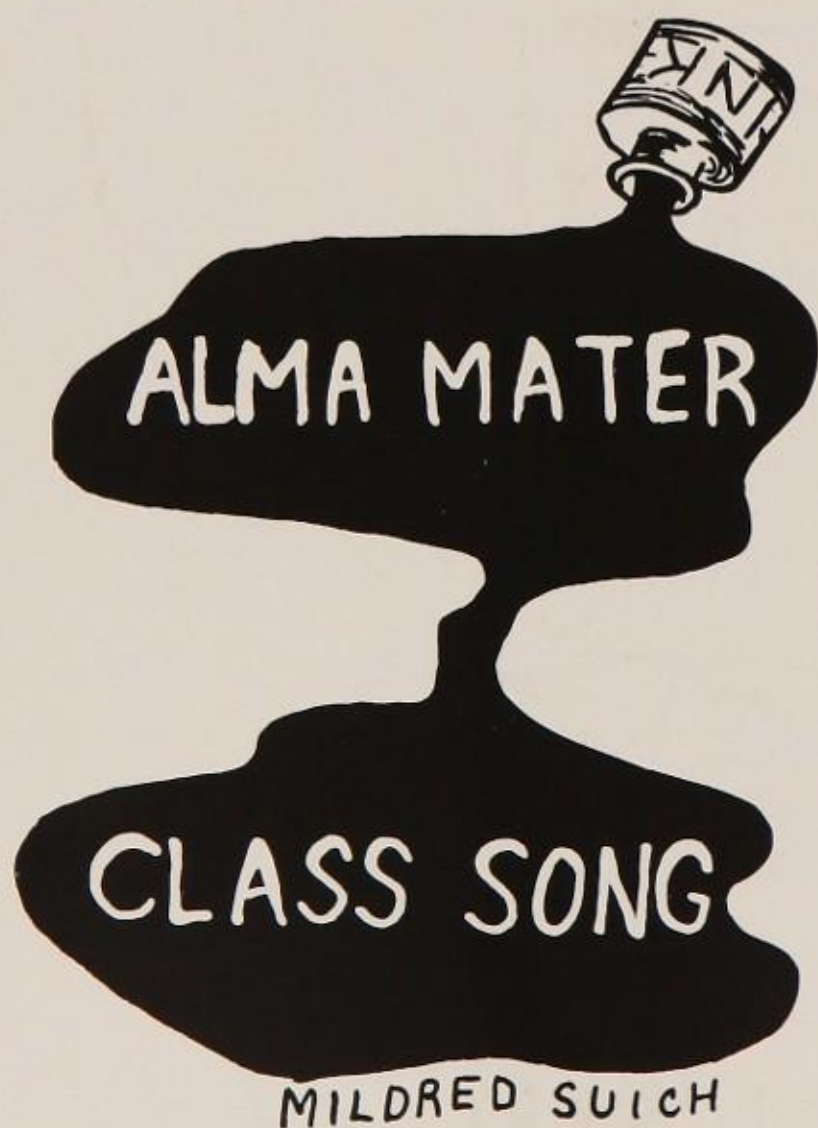

Chorus:

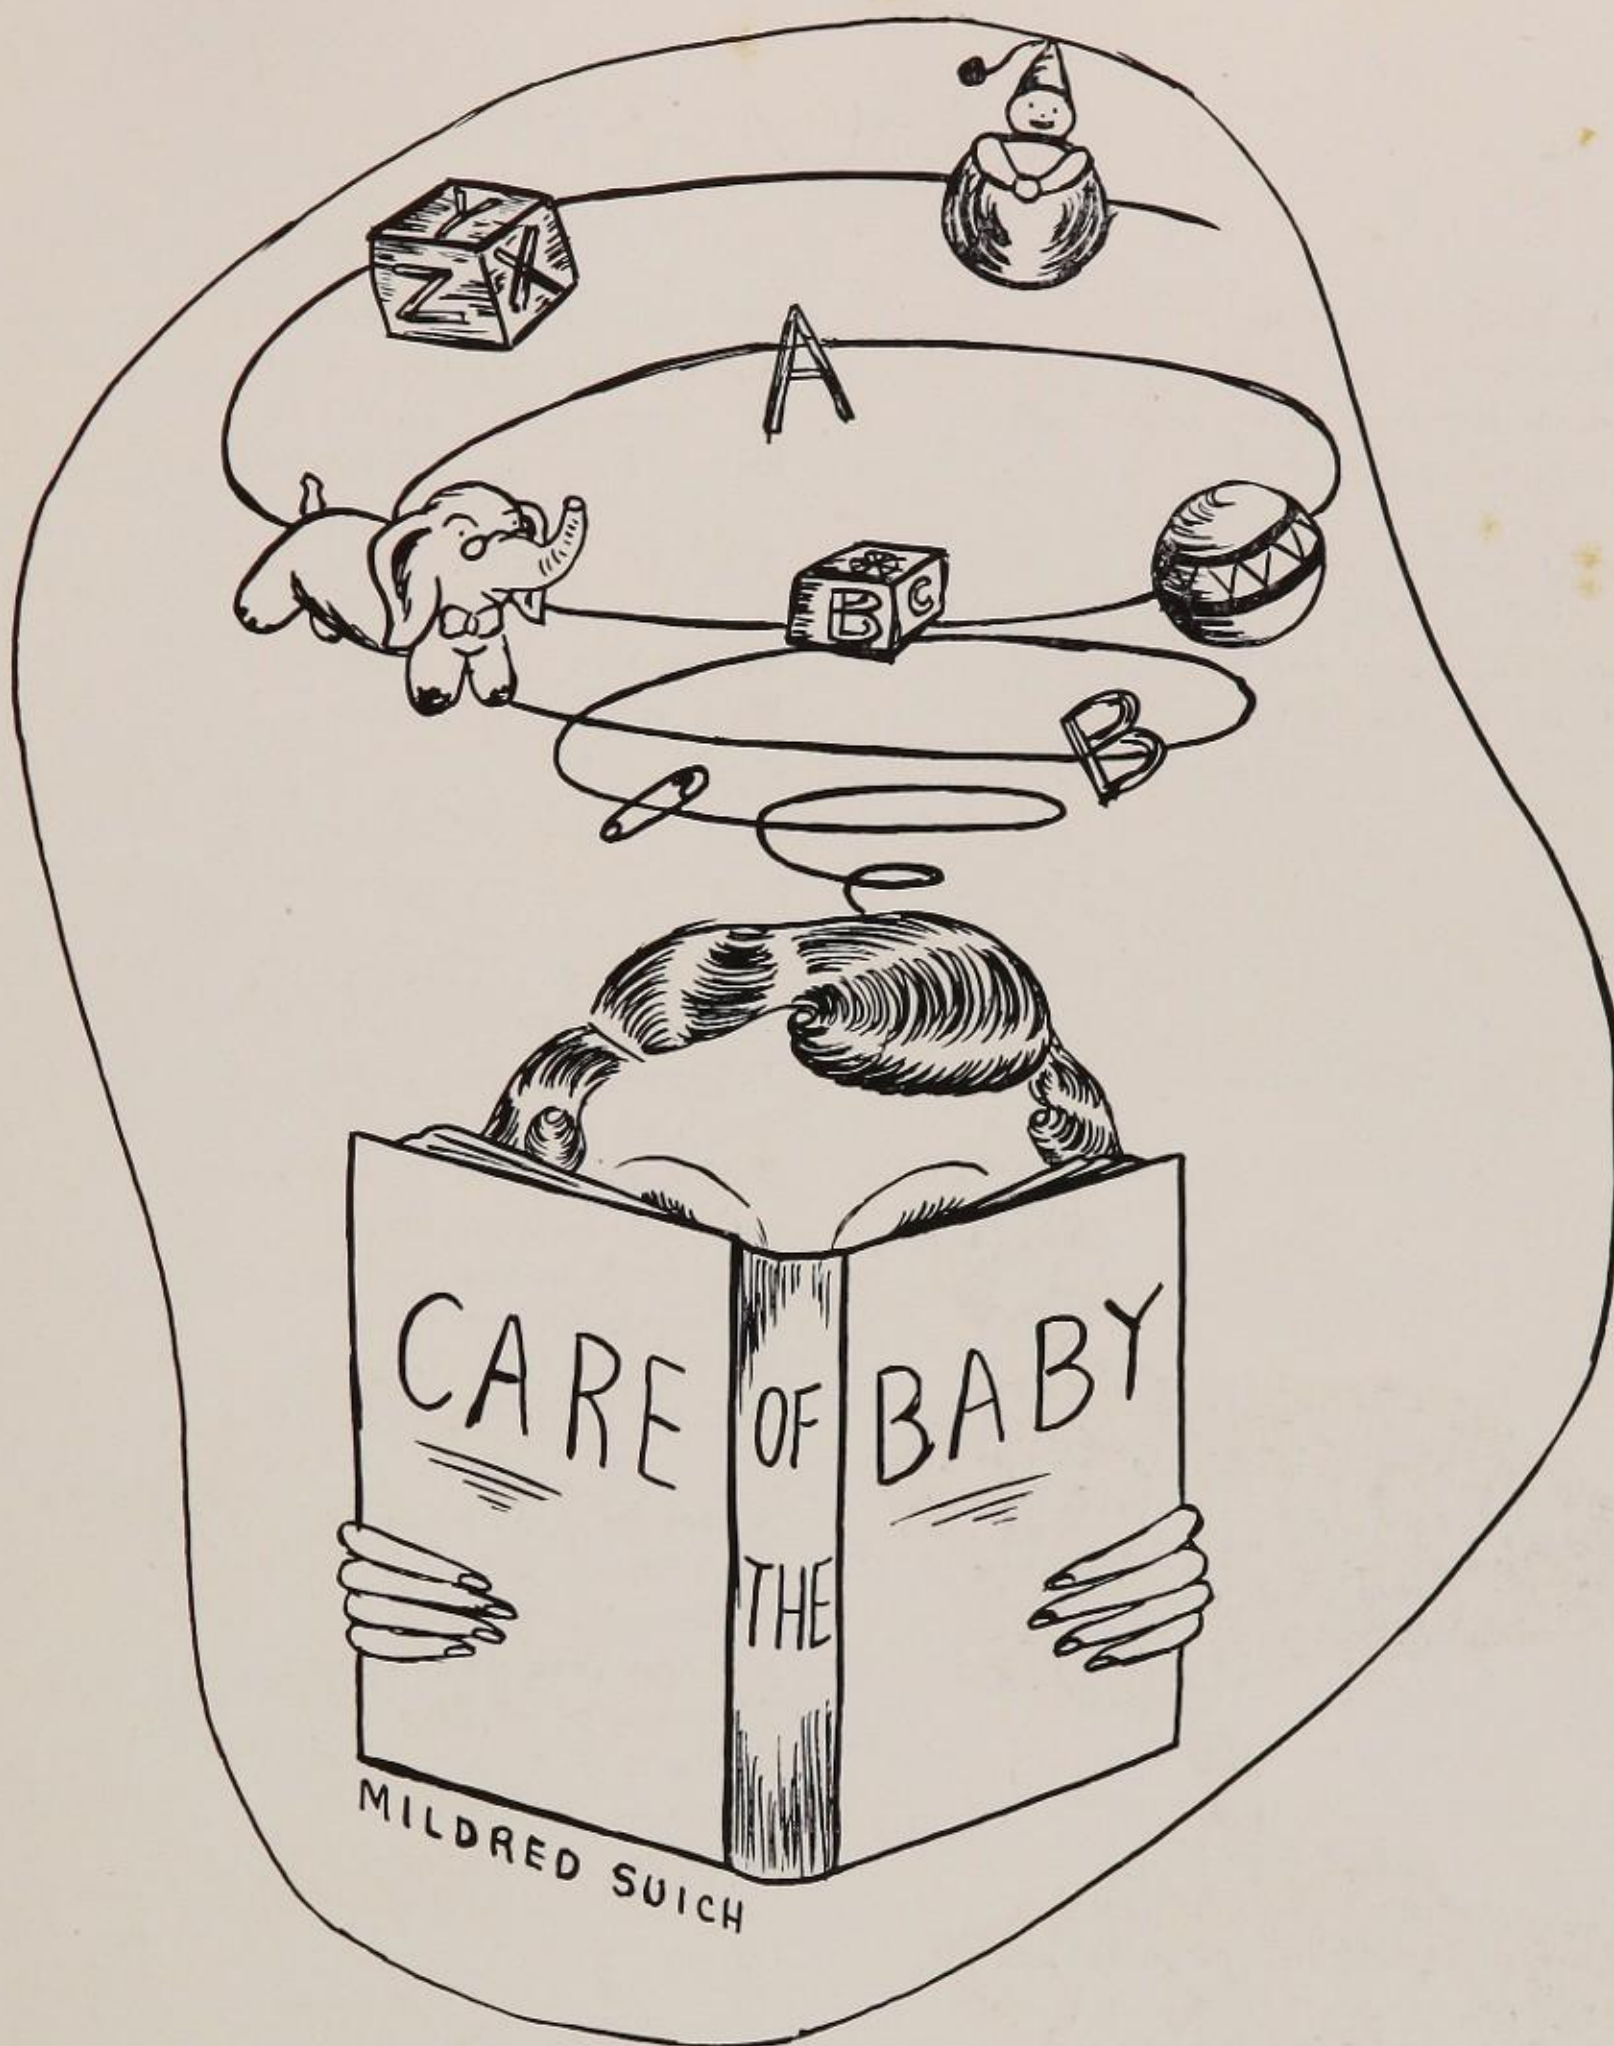

To make this world a better place,
A place that's free for every race—
This is our vow.
To make our country proud that we
Know what is meant by liberty—
This is our vow.

THE 1947 BARONET
ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

John P. Lozo
ADMINISTRATION

DR. JOHN P. LOZO

To Dr. Lozo, the chief of our staff, who has guided our uncertain steps during the four years in high school—from the diaper age of our Freshman year to the rompers in our Senior play pen—we, the graduates of the Class of '47, wish to extend our most sincere gratitude and thanks for the work he has done in bringing us up. Of course, we will miss his fairy tales and bedtime stories about Penn State and "Lighthouse Harry" which have delighted us for four joy-filled years but these we leave to our younger brothers and sisters to enjoy. All of us will remember Dr. Lozo as the person who taught us the right way to play with the toys we most enjoyed in our lives—our education.

MR. VICTOR C. NICKLAS

As supervisor of our nursery, Mr. Nicklas has been a great success, providing us with all the joys and toys to make our diaper days happy ones. When we have forsaken the security and comfort of our play pen, and the protection and guidance of those within, to learn to walk on our own two feet in this unsettled world, we will realize, more and more, the part he has played in the first important steps of our lives.

THE CLASS WILL

HAVING reached that stage where adult standards decree, we must now give up our play toys and our oh! so attractive childish characteristics, we, the Class of 1947, are leaving these possessions we cherish most dearly to the members of the Class of 1948, who are still young enough to appreciate them. Realizing that a few of these were merely accoutrements to our childhood phase, it is nevertheless with great reluctance that we pass on some deemed by us most intelligent and mature for ones our tender age.

To our teachers and administrative officers we extend all sincere thanks and appreciation for all they have done for us during our stop in the Play Pen.

Our front seats in the auditorium we bequeath to the Class of '48, who, we are sure, will take excellent care of them.

The fascinating artistic ability of Ann Fazekas goes to Janet Schmidt.

To Chris Boelhower, we leave Pat Anderson's smoothness and sophistication knowing she will carry on aptly as the sophisticated lady.

Julius Wagerick's athletic prowess on the football field we will to John Toth.

The abilities of our lady executive, Helene Moscarelli, we bequeath to Harriet Paszinski.

The bouncing vitality of Midge Wargo goes to Peggy Bell, who exhibits enough pep for any two Juniors.

Unfortunately for the Class of '48, we have decided to pass on to no one Timmy Dalton's wonderful flair for comedy, feeling that he will always be strictly our property.

Lucky Gloria Swanson inherits the Emily Post ways of Joan Kocsik.

Mary-Jo Finn's highly commendable editorial ability we pass on to the future editor, feeling sure he will carry on in good fashion.

The musical ability of Ray Holzheimer, our Benny Goodman, we leave to Hank D'Angelo.

To fortunate Marion Lybeck goes the affability of Dottie Blanchard.

What could be nicer than leaving Tommy Mulaney's extra smart dancing ability to his sister, Dolores?

Blanche Schiller's extensive wardrobe is Emily Rapps' to inherit.

To Bernie Peterson, heartbreaker of '48, we pass down Ben Den Bleyker's gift of gab to the ladies.

Alice Pinter's just plain cuteness we bequeath to Marge Kreger.

The much envied sociability of Ann Roman we will to all shy members of the Junior class.

Lest we forget, we lovingly bestow Vic Little's dungarees (?) upon any water boy who is not afraid to claim them.

The oh so changeable temperament of Charlotte DeBockler we hand down to Ed Moore, who is definitely 48's temperamental artist.

To Helen Serdinsky go Ginny Degler's noticeably cute dimples.

Janice Gloff's catching smile we bequeath to Geraldine Hooban to help brighten the way when the going is "tuff."

William Scott's crewcut, which has an uncanny resemblance to porcupine frieze, is Ed Triggs' to inherit.

To Arden Charmont goes the bubbling laughter which identifies our own Mary Stubbs.

Ellie Rymsha's exceptionally glib manner we leave to Gloria Hruska.

Fortunate, indeed, is Marion Beagen who inherits Margaret Caddle's lovely soprano voice.

Our rubber man, John Kinsey, stretches another inch to pass his most noticeable characteristic to Richard Tibak.

To Florence Lorseong we hand Lillian Bishop's quiet-as-a-mouse mannerisms.

Dot Curran will henceforth be the title holder for the most sparkling eyes, inherited from Bernice Quadt.

The constantly erupting dramatic side of Jane Hynes goes to Robert Turk.

Room 20's virtual twins, Bob Burrows and Tony Brodniak, pass on their inseparability to Alice Zarsky and Jean MacKinzie.

Those outstanding bangs of Lil Balogh's, Gloria Masucci gets.

Ruth Kuzma's bowling scores go to Shirley Romer.

Who but Bill Lauritsen could take the place of Jerry McElroy as Jackson's handy man

Buddy Davis's bluffs we leave to Jimmy Boland, knowing that he will manage as well as Buddy.

Carol Brem's lovely blonde hair to Grace Olsen.

We bestow on Dolores Beam the strawberry blonde curls of Martha Heigden.

Helen Kulpinsky's vivaciousness to Joan Bartos, whose sparkling liveliness warrants it.

We leave the debating ability of Herbert Hutt, Mr. Desmond's pride and joy, to Bob Reway, who we think will carry on in like fashion.

That handy Webster's Pocket Dictionary of Jessie Miller's we leave to all future Secretarial Practice students who, we know, will find good use for it.

Lowell McLellan's "A's" and more "A's" we bequeath to Clare Balint, who has a good start in this direction.

Charlie Ludwig's brand new 1928 Model-T Ford we leave to any Junior who has enough money to buy such an expensive contraption.

Nick Shevchenko's leadership abilities go to John Schmidt.

Ann Smolinski's untiring efforts are left to Charlotte Dingley.

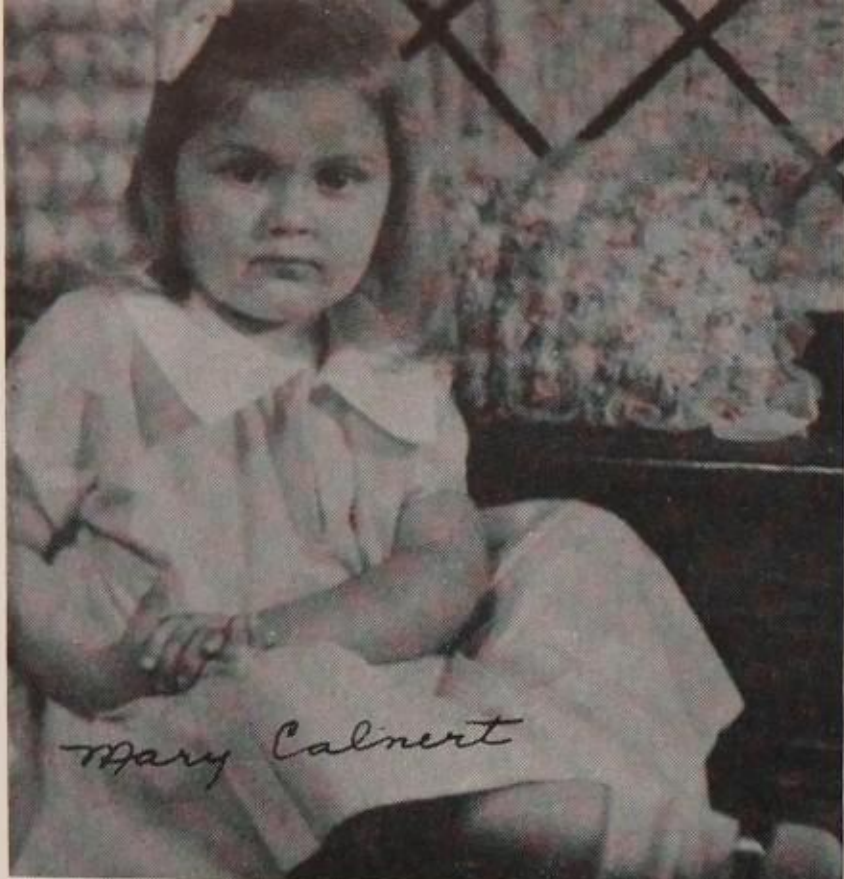

The friendliness of Gertrude Franke, we endow on Amelia Bertolozzi.

To Bill Nork goes Milton Austin's good looks.

Likewise, we make, constitute and appoint THE CLASS OF '48 to be our executors of this, our last Will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto subscribed our name and affixed our seal this wonderful day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.

CLASS HISTORY

BIRTH CERTIFICATE

FILED FOR: Class of 1947

DATE OF BABY'S ARRIVAL: September 9, 1943

PLACE: Woodbridge High School

NURSERY SUPERVISOR: Arthur C. Ferry

FRESHMAN YEAR

FIRST DAY: Baby in terrible temper, crying and lost almost constantly. Nursery rhymes ("All-Hi News") quieted him somewhat.

FIRST NURSERY CHANGE: Baby reacted quite well and with little fright to new supervisory attendant, Dr. John P. Lozo.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

FIRST SCARE: Hurricane struck in September. Baby made his usual amount of unnecessary uproar; survived it in one piece.

FIRST BIG EXCITEMENT: Crawled around town rather overwhelmingly in snake dance celebration of Perth Amboy victory.

FIRST ORGANIZATION: Baby divided attention helter skelter between both sessions—kept equilibrium with aid of Bill Weigers and Helen Friedman.

ACTIVITIES: Managed to waddle fairly well at Sophomore Dance.

FIRST FREEDOM: Opened mouth for exemplary purpose for first time—helped elect first Student Council Officers.

JUNIOR YEAR

FIRST SPECIALIST: Mr. Leonard Cuiffreda, new attendant, appointed with Nick Shevchenko to guide ropes on baby's harness for the year.

BIG EXCITEMENT: Got in fight with next door baby (Perth Amboy) over football game. Their resulting strike quickly settled.

SPECIAL VISITORS: Put on best bib and tucker, scrubbed hands and face, and behaved at best for visiting Evaluating Committee.

ACTIVITIES: Toddled around in rhythm three nights at class dances—great improvement shown.

BIG PARTY: Baby had his first soda and cake, orchestral background, flowers, and grown-up clothes, at his dance to remember—the Junior Prom.

HAPPIEST DAY: Moving-up day—took over top niche in nursery while overeagerly pushing reluctant older brother Seniors out the door.

SENIOR YEAR

SECOND SPECIALIST: Mr. Frederick Beckley took over governing duties in nursery, Nick Shevchenko again assisting.

NEW MEMBERS: Spent hectic hours noisily welcoming back old playmates (veterans).

SALES ATTEMPT: Baby made himself generally obnoxious selling Christmas cards, play tickets, and yearbook ads and boosters.

SHOW-OFFY MOMENT: On December 11, 12 and 13, under Mr. Edmund T. Dougherty's direction, placed himself in dramatic limelight before crowds of beaming (if not prejudiced) parents and friends.

PARTIES: Baby duly celebrated Sadie Hawkin's Day, Christmas, Valentine's Day, and his departure with some finally expert foot maneuvering.

FIRST JEWELRY: After much impatient and slightly irrational waiting, baby received his class ring (evidently proof of seniorship was in need).

BIG SOCIAL EVENT: Soft lights, and sweet music, hints of long-awaited maturity, fun, romance, and a wonderful time all rolled into one for the infant, spelled—Senior Prom.

FIRST TRIP: Finally out on his own—"good time had by all."

CLASS NIGHT: Reenacted days of yore in the nursery—honored his more outstanding playmates, babies, first class.

DEPARTURE: Maturity at last—a wave of nostalgia passed over the baby that was, as he took his last nursery step—onto graduation.

FAIRY TALES

Nick Shevchenko will be campaigning for Senatorship or even for Presidency. Who knows?

Lowell McLellan will be sporting the new title "Dean of Penn State," breaking a world-wide record as the youngest Dean in the history of the world.

Don't be surprised if Donnie LaPenta succeeds Fred Astaire in the motion picture and theatrical field as the greatest dancer the public has ever seen.

Jack Gardner will leave the beautiful state of New Jersey and make Texas his new address. He will be one of the most successful ranchers in the state.

Roz Pfeiffer's photogenic features will probably make her the No. 1 Cover Girl in the United States.

Vera Vague will retire to let the up-and-coming comedienne, Millie Habich, take her place on the Bob Hope show.

The masterpieces of Doris Paulin will be hanging in art galleries all over the world. Her name will go down in history as one of the greatest artists of America in the 20th century.

Peggy Hyers will buy Bing Crosby's race track and horses. That girl has horses in her blood.

Lorraine Malinowski's blonde crowning glory will be advertising shampoo.

Lucky Edna Huber will be modeling the thing dear to every femme heart—clothes.

The baseball ability of Lou Gehrig and Babe Ruth will be surpassed by our own Vic "Tippy" Pocklembo.

Thousands of people all over the world will tune in to hear their ace news commentator, John McClure.

Ben Den Bleyker is discovering that Avenel is too small for him, so he's packing his bag and migrating to California to stand on the corner of Hollywood and Vine.

Red Skelton is a has-been. Bob Burrows is rapidly taking his place.

The people went wild over the new concert pianist who made her debut at Metropolitan Opera House. She was none other than our own Doris Clausen.

Girls' basketball has become a delightfully popular sport. Marie Stumpf is showing her excellent athletic ability by capturing both the fielding and batting honors of the National American Girls' League.

Tex Beneke and his Orchestra is stepping out of first place so that the ever-so-popular Bill Wiegars and his Orchestra may take over.

Ray Holzheimer has established a music school in New York City, and people are simply raving about his expert instructions.

Threatening the popularity of Fibber McGee and Molly are Jessie Miller and Mr. Donald Wescott.

Betty Wohlert will pick up where Florence Nightingale left off.

Since there is nothing left for Jack Benny to brag about, he is bowing out to let Bill Ridyard take a crack at it.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Who is the
"Voice with a Smile?"

A GIRL very much like you—perhaps she lives on your block or went to your school. She's friendly, wants to get ahead, and takes pride in a job that counts in her community.

She dresses well, too, on a salary that is the highest in telephone history. Yes, she likes it here—the interesting work, the pleasant surroundings, the feeling of working with young people like herself.

You will like it here, too. And your Vocational Guidance Director can tell you how easy it is to become a "Voice with a Smile" after you graduate. Ask her today.

CRAFTSMEN

FINE QUALITY PRINTING is nowhere so essential as in school and college annuals. The story told by copy is worthless unless the printed pages provide eloquent testimony of its truthful reproduction of campus life.

- Production of distinctive printing depends upon the masterful handling of such technicalities as layout, artwork, make-ready, and presswork, and also upon the selection of proper ink, paper and binding.
- Consistently good printing has made the Colyer organization the first and last choice of the leading schools and colleges.
